Side Notes: The original lyrics to this song were written by Joseph M. Scriven as a poem in 1855 to comfort his mother who was living in Ireland while he was in Canada. Scriven originally published the poem anonymously and didn't receive credit for nearly 30 years. Often times, we do small and simple acts of service for friends, family, and sometimes complete strangers with no recognition and often not even a "thank you." Sometimes the greatest reward is the feeling we get when we know we've helped someone. When you are in the service of your fellow man, you are only in the service of your God... and I can think of no one better to serve and call our friend than Jesus.

What a Friend We Have in Jesus

(Israel, Israel God is Calling)

Arranged by
JASON TONIOLI

The image displays a piano arrangement of the hymn 'What a Friend We Have in Jesus'. The score is written in common time (C) and begins with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic. It consists of four systems of music, each with a treble and bass clef staff. The first system starts with a treble clef staff containing a series of chords and a melodic line, and a bass clef staff with a simple accompaniment. The second system continues the piece, with a large, semi-transparent watermark 'O' overlaid in the center. The third and fourth systems complete the visible portion of the score, showing further development of the melody and accompaniment.
