BATTLE STATIONS

Words and Music by GEORGE MICHAEL

Spoken over 1^o

You ask too much of me,
You try my patience.
Your tongue it's like a razor
You choose your words like weapons
Here we go – battlestations

Spoken over D.C.

You don't know how much I hate that answer-phone
Are you standing there?
But you won't pick up the phone, why lie to my face,
When you can buy a tape machine to give me bullshit in your place.

I ne-ver have the guts to let you look in-side, I
To-day I did some-thing I thought I'd ne-ver do, I don't think you'd ap-pre-ci-ate the things that I hide.)

op-ened up your dia-ry and read a-bout you.)
