POKAREKARE ANA

Traditional New Zealand melody
arranged by Christopher Norton

Expressively ♩ = 108
swung 8s

The musical score is written for piano in 4/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It is marked 'Expressively' with a tempo of 108 beats per minute and a 'swung 8s' feel. The score is divided into four systems. The first system begins with a mezzo-piano (mp) dynamic and includes a 'con Ped' instruction. The second system features a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic. The score includes various musical notations such as slurs, ties, and fingerings (e.g., 1, 2, 4, 5). A large, semi-transparent watermark is visible in the center of the page.

Pokekare Ana (meaning 'agitated waters') is a Maori song written by soldiers who travelled to Europe to work in some of the harshest conditions of the First World War, digging trenches in France and Belgium. It is a love song which describes an intense longing to be back in the arms of loved ones at home.
