The first system of piano accompaniment consists of two staves. The right hand plays a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady bass line with quarter notes. The second system continues this pattern, with the right hand featuring more complex rhythmic figures and the left hand maintaining the harmonic foundation.

The third system includes vocal lines and piano accompaniment. The vocal staves show the lyrics for two parts of the song. The piano accompaniment continues with a melodic line in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The system concludes with a final chord in the piano part.
