The Water of Tyne

Words and music anon.

This beautiful Northumbrian folk song is in the same vein as Maa Bonny Lad, except that it is the River Tyne that separates the lovers in this song.

Tenderly

Chords: D, A, B, G, D, A, Bm, G, D, G, A, G, F#m, Bm, D, G, D, G, D, A, Bm, G, D

Lyrics:

1. I can-not get to my love if I would dee, The wa - ter of Tyne runs be - tween him and me; And here I must stand with a tear in my e'e, Both sigh - ing and sick - ly my sweet-heart to see.

Performance Notes: The piano accompaniment is marked mp (mezzo-piano). The score is written for voice and piano, with guitar chords indicated above the vocal line.
