Johnny Todd

This children's rhyme and game was collected in Liverpool near the end of the 19th century by Frank Kidson. He included it in his Traditional Tunes (1891) and said, 'The air is somewhat pleasing, and the words appear old, though some blanks caused by the reciter's memory have had to be filled up.'

The musical score for 'Johnny Todd' is presented in two systems. The first system shows the vocal melody and piano accompaniment for the first line of the song. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment for the second line. The piano part features a steady accompaniment with chords and moving lines in both hands. The vocal line is written in a single staff with lyrics underneath. The score includes a large watermark 'O' in the center.
