Philippa's Jig

'I'm confident this jovial jig will be a real winner with teachers and pupils alike. It's great fun to play, with hand-crossing galore and a banquet of carefully judged markings to feast on. An occasional explosion of dynamics or other unexpected diversion adds to its rustic appeal, and yet ballet shoes might be more suitable than clogs for this brisk dance. Find a speed which allows you to play crisply and vigorously, but tidily, too.' Mark Tanner, Editor
