Étude in A minor Op.50, No.2

'Despite being one of 25 Études Faciles, this exquisite piece has plenty to keep the diligent pianist on their toes; to achieve a nonchalant yet buoyant sound, much concentrated practice will be needed. Modelled on a siciliana, it needs a lilting, purposeful feel – the piece could almost be a window into French 19th-century style. The pianist might imagine the tune sung artfully, or perhaps performed on an oboe.' Mark Tanner, Editor
