Wassail Song

Words and music traditional

This Christmas song is from the north of England, probably Yorkshire, and dates from around 1850. 'Wassail', a drinking salutation connected with Christmas celebrations, is thought to derive from the Norse 'ves heill', to keep in good health

Cheerfully

(Capo on 1st fret):

Verse 1:

1. Here we come a - was - sail - ing a - mong the leaves so green; —

Verse 2:

Here we come a - wan - der - ing, so fair — to be seen.

CHORUS:

Love and joy come to you, And to you your was - sail too, And God bless you, and
