1. We went to the room — and we bolt - ed the door, — The
 - way in the sky — were the lights of a jet, —

bass from the juke — box — was com - ing through the floor, — And out through the walls —
 Burn - ing in the night like — a slow cig - ar - ette. — The lamp in the street —

we could still hear the roar — of the trains. — threw a soft sil - hou - ette — on the wall. —
