Side Notes: This song isn't named after a place, but anywhere that I have been that is "special". Typically, this takes a few hours, if not many hours of travel. In some ways, I think the journey is what makes the place even more special. Some of my best memories of travel include times when we've packed as many cool things into a day as possible. Then when you finish the day, you are completely exhausted and are able to take a rest. This is the soundtrack for the end of one of those long days.

The musical score is written for piano in 3/4 time. It consists of four systems of music. The first system begins with a mezzo-piano (mp) dynamic marking. The score features a mix of chords and melodic lines in both the treble and bass staves. A large, semi-transparent watermark 'O' is positioned in the center of the page, overlapping the second and third systems of the score.
