THE ARMY, THE NAVY AND THE AIR FORCE

Words and Music by Herman Darewski and Edward Lockton

Tempo di Marcia VERSE

There's mu-sic on the air, There's shout-ing ev-'ry-
The bands begin to play A martial tune so

-where, As the boys go march-ing by, We hear the tramp of feet ; A-long the crowd-ed gay, And the roll-ing drums we hear, We see them wave on wave, So trus-ty and so street, And our hearts are beat-ing high! They pass us line on line, My brave, How the peo-ple shout and cheer! Al- tho' the world may say, "Old word! but they look fine! See the sol-diers straight and tall, The sail-or lads so true, The England's had her day!" They will find their dreams are vain, So let them all be told, That
