VOICE

You'll par-don me for talk-ing, Talk-ing a-bout my love. You'll par-don me if Use your i-mag-i - na-tion, Pic-ture the morn-ing sun, Rise o'er the hill and

I climb a tree and sing like a bird a - bove. You'll par-don me for ask-ing, you'll feel the thrill I get from my prec-ious one. She's like an in-spir - a - tion,

"Who's com-ing down the street?" It's no one you know, but some-one I know you'll all be glad to meet.
Out of a po-ets pen, When-ev-er she pets me, she al-ways gets me, En-vied by the men.
