VERSE

1. You were ev-ry-bo-dy's sweet-heart, not so long a go. And in our home-town each boy a-round, Lodged to be your beau.

2. In a sim-p-le-gown of ging-ham, I can see you still. As you went your way at close of day, Past the old red mill.

But things are diff-erent to-day I'm might-y sorry to say:
You're dressed in sat-ins to-day But still your eyes seem to say:
