Sonatina in D major Op.36, No.6

6

'This is a delightfully accessible piece – a grade 8 player should be able to learn it quickly with efficient practice. It begins with a very light main theme, which has the feel of a spirited dance that is brought to a grand conclusion in the dominant key. The second half evolves into gradually descending march-like octaves and we are soon brought to a recapitulation. There are choral (or even operatic) stylisations to savour. Overall, a leggiero approach will enhance the sweetness of this highly engaging sonatina.' Andrew Cole, West Yorkshire
