The Derby Ram

This is obviously a long and 'tall' tale and could have many more verses than are given here. The ram features in the coat of arms of Derby and in the emblem of Derby football club.

The musical score is written in 6/8 time. It consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The piano part has a bass line with a steady eighth-note accompaniment and a treble line with chords and melodic fragments. The vocal line is in a single register and includes lyrics. A large watermark 'O' is overlaid on the middle of the score.
