1: Who can say what lies a-head? Dark-est thoughts may spin their thread.
 2: What may one brief candle show in the sha-dow of its glow?
 3: Treason here has shown his face, he-ros too can fall from grace.

Webs of trea-son snared Mac-beth, bring-ing fear and bring-ing death.
 Wild-est dreams and night-mares deep, guilt and fear dis-turb all sleep.
 This sad tale at last com-plete, now the drum has ceased to beat.
