THE ARMY, THE NAVY AND THE AIR FORCE

Words and Music by Herman Darewski and Edward Lockton

Tempo di Marcia VERSE

There's mu-sic on the air, There's shouting ev-'ry-
The bands begin to play A martial tune so

-where, As the boys go march-ing by, We hear the tramp of feet ; A-long the crowd-ed gay, And the roll - ing drums we hear, We see them wave on wave, So trus - ty and so street, And our hearts are beat - ing high! They pass us line on line, My brave, How the peo - ple shout and cheer! Al - tho' the world may say, "Old word! but they look fine! See the sol - diers straight and tall, The sail - or lads so true, The England's had her day!" They will find their dreams are vain, So let them all be told, That
