Fantasia G. Gratiofo.

Dozzina 3.

The first system of musical notation for the Fantasia. It consists of two staves, a treble clef on top and a bass clef on the bottom. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 3/4. The music features a complex rhythmic pattern with many sixteenth and thirty-second notes, and rests.

The second system of musical notation. It continues the piece with similar rhythmic complexity. A repeat sign is visible in the middle of the system, indicating a section that is repeated.

The third system of musical notation. The piece continues with intricate melodic lines in both hands.

The fourth system of musical notation. A large, semi-transparent watermark is visible in the center of the page, partially overlapping this system.

The fifth system of musical notation. The piece continues with its characteristic fast and complex rhythmic patterns.

The sixth system of musical notation. The piece concludes this section with a final cadence.

Divace.

The Divace section, which is a slower movement. It features a different time signature of 3/8. The music is more melodic and less rhythmically complex than the Fantasia, with a focus on sustained notes and a steady pulse.
