The Carnal and the Crane

Words and music traditional

The word 'carnal' is generally thought to derive from 'cornielle', which is French for a crow. The carol takes the form of a conversation between the two birds.

The musical score is presented in three systems. Each system consists of a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment (grand staff). The key signature is one flat (B-flat major/D minor) and the time signature is 4/4. The tempo/style is 'Smoothly'. The first system includes the instruction '(NC)' and a dynamic marking of 'mf'. The second system includes a 'v.5' marking. The third system includes a double bar line with repeat dots. Chords are indicated above the vocal line.
