Farewell to Fiunary

Words and music by Norman MacLeod

This is still often sung at partings of social gatherings in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland. Fiunary is on the Argyleshire coast.

The musical score is written in 6/8 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It consists of four systems of music. Each system includes a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The piano part is written in treble and bass clefs. The first system starts with a 'Smoothly' tempo marking and includes a dynamic marking of 'mf'. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The third system is labeled 'CHORUS' and begins with a new melodic phrase. The fourth system concludes the piece with a final melodic line and accompaniment. Chord symbols are placed above the vocal line to indicate the harmonic structure.
