Side Notes: This song is often played during funerals, but I think the message I take away from this hymn is a reminder that often times the small things we do for others are what are most important, and most remembered, by those who have known us. My favorite lyrics are: "What greater gift dost thou bestow, than Christlike friends, whose gentle ways, strengthen our faith, enrich our days."

I hope that we will seek out opportunities to enrich the lives of others by way of our time, talents and other things that we may be blessed with.
