The Old Man Who Lived in the Wood

Words and music traditional

This was an extremely popular American folk song. It reflects the hardships of the early American settlers.

Humorously
(NC)

1. There was an old man who lived in the woods, As you shall plainly see, Who said he could do more work in a day, Than his wife could do in three. 'With all my heart!' the old woman said, 'But then you must allow, That you must do my work for a day, And I'll go follow the plough.'

(Capo on 3rd fret)
