I Guess I'll Miss the Man

From the Broadway Musical "Pippin"

Words and Music by
STEPHEN SCHWARTZ

Wistful ballad

The musical score consists of three staves. The top staff is for the voice, starting in D major (two sharps) and transitioning through F#m, D, and Em. The lyrics "I guess I'll He never" are written below the notes. The middle staff is for the piano, marked with a dynamic "p". The bottom staff is for the bassoon, which plays sustained notes throughout the section. A "simile" instruction is placed near the end of the bassoon's line.

missed the man, - enough,

Ex But plain though it his if words were can. - gruff, -

R.H.

His face was far from sad, fine.
I liked his shy, glance.
