Side Notes: This is an original composition that I wrote as the title song for my Christmas book, "A Christmas Lullaby". I've included this song because to me, it has both Christmas and spiritual meaning. I wrote this five months before our first child was born. While writing the melody, I tried to think about what it must be like before we come to earth. Stacy and I now have four wonderful kids. We know that our Savior loved little children. I often wonder if my own children sat with the Savior and learned of their mission here on earth before coming to our home. Throughout our life, I hope each of us can discover what our mission on earth might be and accomplish those things which the Lord has called us to do.
