The Rook

No. 2 from Three Songs
(from the Recollections of Childhood)

Words: traditional
English translation by Neil Sissons

Igor Stravinsky
(1882-1971)

Allegro ♩ = 120

The piano introduction is in 2/4 time with a key signature of one flat (Bb). It features a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes in the right hand and a similar pattern in the left hand. The dynamics start at mp (mezzo-piano), transition through poco (poco) to f (forte) towards the end of the introduction.

The first line of the song features a vocal melody in the treble clef and piano accompaniment in the grand staff. The lyrics are: "On the bridge one day a rook Dried her feath - ers when I met her". The piano accompaniment is marked sub. p, staccato e molto ritmico (subito piano, staccato and very rhythmic).

The second line of the song continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "Grab! the bird's long tail I took Fitched her down on - to the brook." The piano accompaniment is marked molto sf (molto fortissimo) and mf (mezzo-forte).
