Side Notes: This song is also entitled "Fairest Lord Jesus." The music and lyrics were written by German Jesuits in the 17th Century and is known as a Silesian folk song. The version most people are familiar with was arranged by Richard S. Willis in 1850. When I play this song, I like to think of the beautiful creations mentioned in the lyrics of the second and third verses. These lyrics are "Fair are the meadows, Fair are the woodlands, Robed in flowers of blooming spring; Fair is the sunshine, Fair is the moonlight, Bright the sparkling stars on high;" Before you play this song and while you play it, think of what our Savior has made for us and how much He loves each and every one of His children.

(Fairest Lord Jesus)

Arranged by
JASON TONIOLI

The musical score is written for piano in common time (C). It consists of four systems of music, each with a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The first system begins with a treble clef and a common time signature. The first measure is marked mf. The second system starts at measure 5. The third system starts at measure 9. The fourth system starts at measure 13. A large, semi-transparent watermark 'O' is centered over the middle of the score. The score includes various musical notations such as chords, single notes, and rests.
