Side Notes: The first time I heard this melody, I was at a youth camp sitting around a fire. The stars were bright and this was the last song we sang before retiring for the evening. As we sang, the spirit touched me and at that moment I knew that the Savior truly watches over his children. No matter what we might be feeling, He is aware of us and will be there to comfort us if we ask him. This song is a prayer asking the Lord to stay near us throughout the night.

This arrangement is dedicated to my many friends and family members who have dealt with losing a loved one. It is my hope that if you (or someone who is within listening range of your piano) are going through hard times, you will play this as a prayer to our Lord, asking him to stay near and comfort you with His Spirit in your time of need.
