INTRO. VERSE

In A-pril he came to my valley — We
(Oh) when it grows warm in the valley —

laughed in the sun-shine and kissed 'neath the moon I thought he would ask me to mar-ry —
Still I will trem-ble while we are a - part Black - ber-ry snow on the hill - side —

When black - ber-ries rip-ened in June — But then he cast eyes at an — Is bleak like the ice in my heart — Ber-ries turn black in the oth - er — With lips like the tips of the red Ju - das tree A spell set-tled Sum-mer — Black as his dark eyes that spar-kle and shine If he comes
