Side Notes: This melody is one of my all-time favorites. When playing this arrangement, be sure not to rush. Take your time and reflect upon the fact that the Lord will always be there to listen to you. He understands whatever trials you might be going through. Someday each of us will have the chance to see our Savior face to face, but until that time, we must learn to recognize and follow His promptings and enjoy the comfort His Spirit can bring.

The image displays a piano arrangement of the hymn 'Where Can I Turn For Peace?'. The score is written for piano in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of three systems of music. The first system starts with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#), with a 4/4 time signature. The tempo/mood is marked 'Thoughtfully' and the dynamics are 'p' (piano). A large, semi-transparent watermark 'O' is centered over the first system. The second system begins at measure 5 and continues with similar notation. The third system begins at measure 9 and concludes the piece. The bass line is mostly rests, with some accompaniment in the lower register.
