Steady shuffle
(Slowly)

The musical score is written in a steady shuffle (slowly) in 4/4 time, with a key signature of one flat (Bb). It consists of four systems of music. Each system includes a vocal line with lyrics and a piano accompaniment with chords and bass line. The lyrics are: "You've got a (1) Rov - ing eye, (2) Play it smart, And you go from guy to Or you just might lose your guy, heart, Butt - er - fly, Butt - er - fly. -And you And it would come be on a strong, shame, But it nev - er lasts for If you fell for your own long, game, Butt - er - fly, Butt - er - fly. Butter - fly. Butter - fly." The piano accompaniment features chords such as D7, Am7, Gm7, C7, and F. The bass line provides a steady shuffle rhythm. There are some performance markings like 'mf' and '3' (triplets) throughout the score.
