Side Notes: This song is also known as "O Tannenbaum". It is of German origin. The most well known version was written in 1824 by Leipzig organist, teacher and composer Ernst Anschütz. The melody is an old folk tune. The first known "Tannenbaum" song lyrics date back to 1550.

O Come All Ye Faithful just seemed to fit well with O Christmas Tree. The original tune name is "Adeste Fideles" and is attributed to John Frances Wade. It is one of my favorite hymn tunes. This is a great intermediate piece for those learning to play piano.

The image displays a piano arrangement of the hymn "O Christmas Tree/O Come All Ye Faithful". The score is written for piano and consists of three systems of music. Each system includes a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff, both in the key of B-flat major and 4/4 time. The first system begins with a mezzo-piano (mp) dynamic marking and the instruction "With Pedal". A large, semi-transparent watermark of the letter "O" is centered over the middle system of the score. The music features a simple, melodic line in the treble clef and a supporting bass line in the bass clef, with various chords and intervals.
