Side Notes: The text for this music was written by Gordon B. Hinckley and sung by the Mormon Tabernacle Choir at his funeral. The music for the song was written by Janice Kapp Perry. I ran across the original version of the Hymn online and loved the melody and ended up combining it with parts of an original song.

What is This Thing That Men Call Death?

Arranged by
JASON TONIOLI

The image displays a piano arrangement of the hymn "What is This Thing That Men Call Death?" in common time (C). The score is presented in three systems, each with a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The first system begins with a piano (p) dynamic marking. The music features a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes in the right hand, often with beamed pairs, and a more rhythmic bass line. A large, semi-transparent watermark of the letter 'O' is centered over the middle system. The second system starts at measure 5, and the third system starts at measure 8. The key signature changes from one flat (B-flat) to two sharps (F# and C#) in the third system.
