Little Lady From Spain.

* "Grace Notes": This little embellishment is played just before the first beat. The accent falls on the first chord of the triplet. See page 10.

✦ "Ad lib." The passage in this bar may be taken in free time": i.e. use your own judgement as how slowly or how fast you play it. See page 66.

⊕ The "Curly" sign in front of this chord indicates that the notes should not be struck together, but each following slightly after the other like a chord played on a harp. The lowest note is struck first.

Andante moderato.

The musical score is presented in three systems, each with a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The first system is marked mf dolce and includes a 'Grace Note' symbol (a star) and a 'Curly' sign (a circle with a cross). The second system features a large 'O' watermark. The third system continues the piece with various musical notations including triplets and slurs.
